

Police Districts Invite Visitors

Now's the time to see what goes on behind the scenes of the district police station. All 21 Chicago stations are holding open house from 4:30 to 8:30 p. m. Sunday thru May 18 as a special feature of Police week in the city.

Police districts and their addresses: District 1, Central, 11 E. 11th st.; district 2, Wabash, 4902 S. Wabash av.; district 3, Grand Crossing, 834 E. 75th st.; district 4, South Chicago, 2938 89th st.; district 5, Kensington, 200 E. 115th st.; district 6, Graceland, 819 W. 85th st.

Other Districts

Others are district 7, Englewood, 6100 S. Racine av.; district 8, Chicago Lawn, 3515 W. 63d st.; district 9, Deering, 3501 Lowe av.; district 10, Marquette, 2259 S. Damen av.; district 11, Fillmore, 4001 Fillmore st.; district 12, Monroe, 100 S. Racine av.; and district 13, Wood, 937 N. Wood st.

The remainder include district 14, Shakespeare, 2138 N. California av.; district 15, Austin, 5327 Chicago av.; district 16, Irving Park, 5430 Gale st.; district 17, Albany Park, 4461 N. Pualski rd.; district 18, East Chicago, 113 W. Chicago av.; district 19, Town Hall, 3600 N. Halsted st.; district 20, Sumnerdale, 1940 Forest av.; and district 21, Hyde Park, 5233 Lake Park av.

McCormick Place Fete

Highlights of the city's Police week observance will be the 8 p. m. ceremony Wednesday in the Arie Crown theater, McCormick Place, 23d street and the lake front.

Free tickets to this event are available at each of the police stations. There will be a display of arts and crafts by police officers. Free tickets to this event are available at each of the police stations. There will be a display of arts and crafts by many of the city's 10,500 policemen and women in the theater lobby of McCormick Place.

Pageant in Ceremony

The 90-minute recognition ceremony will include a pageant as well as the presentation of police awards for outstanding performance of duty. This year the department will present for the first time three civilian awards for heroism performed by a private citizen.

The top award of the department — the Police Medal — will be presented by Supt. O. W. Wilson at this ceremony. This award is given to one of the following policemen previously honored for outstanding service thru 1962.

Candidates Listed

These men include those who received the superintendent's Award of Valor. They are Patrolman Bishop W. Pamon, task force, area 1, patrol division, 300 E. 29th st.; Detective Richard A. Black, detective division, area 2, robbery, 9059 Cottage Grove av.; Detective William G. Mines, detective division, robbery, also of the same address; and Patrolman Michael J. Lyons, traffic division, area 2, of the Cottage Grove address.

Others are Patrolman Serges S. Joseph, task force, area 6, 3801 N. Damen av.; and Detective Howard A. Spooner, detective division, area 4, burglary, 943 Maxwell st.

Tribune Awards

Also to be considered are those who received TRIBUNE Hero awards in 1962. They include Sgt. William J. Kelly, 9th district, 3501 Lowe av.; Patrolman Frank Kalusa, 14th district, 2138 N. California av.; Patrolman Frank J. Boehm, traffic, Loop, 320 N. Clark st.; Patrolman Raymond Walsh, traffic, area 8, 3810 N. Damen av.; Patrolman Walter Wells, 19th district, 3600 N. Halsted st.; and Patrolman Bishop Pamon, task force, area 1, 300 E. 29th st.

Others are Lt. Arthur Schoen, commanding officer, identification section, records and communications, 1121 S. State st.; Sgt. Fred Anderson, traffic, area 5, 2138 N. California av.; Patrolman George Linzy, and Patrolman Thomas Waller, both of the 12th district, 100 S. Racine av.; Patrolman William Ewing, 2d district, 4802 S. Wabash av.; Patrolman Charles Utz, 7th district, 6120 S. Racine av.; and Patrolman Joseph Schiro, 20th district, 1940 Foster av.

Others are Listed

Also Patrolmen John Dameron and Wilton Jones, both of the 1st district, 11 E. 11th st.; and Patrolmen Donald Chorley and Gerald Cushing, both of the 6th district, 819 W. 85th st.; and Patrolmen Milan Kriho and Cosimo Vivirito, both of the 16th district, 5430 Gale st.

Others being considered are St. Patrick McGann, and Detective John Auriemma, both of the organized crime section, 1121 S. State st.; Patrolman Hugh Carroll, task force, administration, of the State street address; and Patrolman George Barnhart, task force, headquarters, of the State street address.

Also included are Patrolmen James Earley and John Walsh, both of the task force, area 2, 9059 Cottage Grove av.; and Patrolman John Grentzner, cartography section, police planning division, 1121 S. State st., who received the Lambert Tree award this year.